Lockheed Aircraft Corporation
Burbank, California

Ref: Bailment Contract L-10

Gentlemen:

Referenced Bailment Contract L-10 expires May 20, 1956. Such contract provided for loan to your corporation of three airplanes, two of which have been removed from bailment during the period of this contract. Accordingly only one C-47 airplane is presently in your possession thereunder.

This letter authorizes extension of Bailment Contract L-10 for an additional period of time, to January 1, 1957, in connection with the one airplane remaining in your possession.

In addition, you are hereby authorized to make the C-47 airplane (Serial 42-23520) available to another company in the Los Angeles area, herein identified as [], for purposes of which you are aware and which purposes are hereby approved by the undersigned. The conditions and obligations of the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation and the United States Government in Contract L-10 shall continue in effect during any such authorized sub-bailment and the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation shall make such arrangements with such other company as the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation deems appropriate and which are not inconsistent with the terms of Contract L-10 as amended.

It is requested that you indicate your receipt of this extension of Bailment Contract L-10 and indicate that you are in agreement with the terms thereof by having the attached copy of this letter executed by an authorized official of your company and returned to the undersigned. You may retain the original for your files.

Very truly yours,

[]
Contracting Officer
